Stanly Arts Guild Announces Children's Art Classes

The Stanly Arts Guild is excited to be offering new children's art classes. The next session will be 6 weeks and they will be offered on Monday and Tuesday, depending on the age of the child attending the class. Mondays will be kindergarten through third grade, and Tuesdays will be third grade through sixth grade. We encourage you to pre-register to ensure that you have a spot in the class.

Each session will have a different focus. The mission of the children's art classes is to grow children's knowledge of art through a variety of different mediums, techniques, and styles, giving them the freedom to express themselves freely. Each week the students will work on age appropriate projects that will develop their art skills and will teach them new ways of creating art.

The six-week session that will begin on November 10 and 11 is titled, "Falling Through the Holiday Season" and will be held at the Albemarle Senior Center, 283 North 3rd Street, Albemarle. The children will be creating Fall, Thanksgiving, and Holiday masterpieces.

Guild Meeting November 6 at 6:30 PM

Bruce Chandler

Join us as we congratulate the winners of the Members Art Show.

We will begin the evening with a social and refreshments at 6:30 p.m. There will be plenty of time to view all of the wonderful entries. The meeting will start at 7:00 pm with the awarding of prizes by our Judge Bruce Chandler.

Ms. Chandler will then demonstrate monotype printing, which is printing without a press. The prints are one of a kind, and are referred to as monotype. At least two different methods will be demonstrated.

During the demonstration, the mystery of chine colle' and other methods of printing will be explained.

There will be as much attendee participation as time permits.

Artist's statement:

Bruce Chandler

I paint for the process - the pure enjoyment of painting. I cannot imagine not painting. Likewise, I couldn't have imagined the endeavors that my art lead me towards - teaching art for three years on ETV, being the only person locked inside a super Wal-mart store, on a scissor lift (while painting murals near the ceiling), and owning a small manufacturing business, winning the Governor's Award for Small Business Employer of the year - 1984. Somewhere along the line, art moved into my life.

Susan Lackey and Gail Black

Gail Black and Susan Lackey I will be showing their artwork in the lobby of the Agri-Civic Center in Albemarle, November 3 - 26, 2014. The show theme is "Expressions of Life and Nature". Both artists will be at the exhibit in person at the show reception on Sunday afternoon, November 9 from 1:00 PM to 3:00 PM. They would love to have you stop in. The fall leaves should still be pretty and for those that like to hike, Albemarle is about 30 minutes from Morrow Mountain. If you miss the reception, you can see the show any time weekdays, 9AM – 5PM and on weekends during events.

Holiday Note Cards Arriving at the Gallery

We are very excited to have this year's holiday note cards printed. You will see them soon in the gallery with the other 3 holiday cards. Normally the guild note cards are priced at $3 each. In addition to individual cards, this year we are offering a volume discount for people that would like to buy multiples to send to friends and family. So consider buying our cards this year as you prepare for the holiday season. We will have order forms in the gallery since we don't print up too many ahead of time. The more you buy, the more discount you will receive. This helps the guild sponsor the programs we offer. You can purchase a set of one card or a mix of any of the four. To place an order, please fill out the order form and pay at the gallery. Here's the pricing we are offering this year:

	Price	Cost of each card
Individual	3.00	3.00
Pkg. of 10	28.00	2.80
Pkg. of 20	52.00	2.60
Pkg. of 50	110.00	2.20
