Stanly Arts Guild Meeting: Oct. 3, 6:45 PM

Doing what you love as a career, is it worth it or not? Nancy Couick, watercolor and acrylic artist, will present a discussion of her career as an artist, including what she would and would not do again. Nancy will share examples of her work, demo some of her watercolor techniques, and tell us how to self-critique our own work. Self-critique is a skill that benefits all artists, regardless of medium.

Nancy is the owner of Nancy Couick Studios and Gallery in Charlotte. For more information, photos of Nancy's work, and information about classes and workshops presented by Nancy and other artists, visit her website at www.nancycouick.com.

This is a meeting you won't want to miss!

Nancy's latest watercolor, "Leaves of Glass" is in to the 2013 Watercolor Society of North Carolina show, to showing September 8 - November 2, 2013 at the Blowing Rock Art and History Museum in Blowing Rock, NC.

The Agri-Civic Center in October

In October, we are featuring Pam Hancharik's watercolor paintings. As a lover of nature, Pam focuses her art on people, animals, and the outdoors. A variety of subjects will be on display: landscapes, florals, pets, and people.

Theresa Mauldin will be displaying her hand made jewelry Sept. 17th thru Oct. 21st. in the showcase at the Agri-Civic Center.

The Agri-Civic Center hours are 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM weekdays and during events.

From the President

First a big thank you to all who helped with the month long, Studio Experience: A Celebration of Clay. And what an experience it was; pottery demo at the September guild meeting, private and group workshops, and the Pottery Show, still going through October 28. Did you see the front page article in the SNAP about the workshop? The gallery has been full of visitors, many first time visitors! Special thanks go to Judith Williams, Teresa Hunsucker, Nancy Lipe, Mary Ann Gantt, Jackie Layman and especially our event chairs, Millie Campbell and Bobbie Listerman.

And, there's much more to come. The next two guild meetings will be equally informative and fun. See the write up of the October meeting on page 1. Our Members Show in October and concludes with a reception at our November meeting, which also includes a celebration of the guild's 50th birthday. That's right, we're 50 in November and we have a very special meeting planned. Join us.

From Our Hand to Your Home

The "From our Hands" craft show is fast approaching. It takes a team of volunteers to coordinate each part. If you can help to staff events, plan activities, assist on vendor set up or take down times, or fill in an empty spot in this quality show, please contact Millie Campbell or Bobbie Listerman.

They will be planning an organizational meeting for the first week of October. There are many ways to get involved with this event.

We know that you are busy finishing your artwork for the Member Show, but don't forget those fine craft projects that you will want to have ready as part of this year's "From Our Hands" event.

As a reminder, this is always the most successful sales event of the year. So be thinking about how you can help with this fun filled and action packed event.

Falling Rivers Gallery News

1 Thanks to Millie, Bobbie and their team for all of the effort that went into September's month-long Celebration of Clay. It was (wait for it)... Legendary!

2 The Downtown Fall Festival will be held this year on Thursday, October 31 4-6 PM. Hundreds of ghosts, goblins and superheroes will descend on Main Street in search of treats. As in years past, we are requesting donations of wrapped candies and treats to hand out during this event and volunteers willing to dress in costume to make their stop at the Gallery a memorable one. Please leave any donations in the back and contact Nancy if you would like to help out during the event.

3 Our last scheduled Art of the Vine for this year will be held on Thursday, October 17th from 5:30 to 7:30pm. Hosted by Anita Ammerman, this will be another Alcohol Inks event. The cost is $32 in advance or $35 on the day of the event. Sign up on our website at fallingriversgallery.com/blog/art-of-the-vine-registration-page.

Preview of the November Guild Meeting

In November, we will be "Celebrating the Stanly Arts Guild 50th Anniversary." This is our guild's biggest birthday party ever! Mark this important date on your calendar, Thursday evening Nov. 7th from 6:00 to 8:00 PM.. Please make a note of the difference in start time for this special meeting.

You will be entertained by the Red Hill Quartet featuring our own guild member, David Arey. Member Show awards will be presented that evening.

There will be other surprise events and of course a birthday party wouldn't be complete without refreshments. More details to come. Call Jackie Layman if you'd like to help plan this event or have some creative ideas.
