Judge

Marietta Foster Smith will be the judge for the show this year. She received a degree in Arts Management from Salem College after completing her studio art courses at UNC-G. She was Executive Director of Associated Artists of Winston-Salem, Inc., coordinator of the Adult Drawing and Painting Department at the Sawtooth Center of Art and Executive Director of the Rowan County Arts Council. She currently is one of the professional artists at Rail Walk Studios & Gallery in Salisbury, NC where she creates art in oil, watercolor and sculpture. She teaches individual art lessons and group workshops.

Marietta's art has been received and awarded in several juried exhibitions and her illustrations have been published in numerous books, magazines and educational materials. She is experienced in judging shows where she looks for the pieces with evidence of good composition, technical skill, creativity and that "something special."
